

Office of Congressman Raúl M. Grijalva

Presents the 2014

ENTRY GUIDELINES:

- Entries must be made by students in grades 7-12.
- Student must live in Congressional District 3.
- Artwork must be 2D and no larger than 28" x 28" x 4"
- Each entry must be original in concept, design, and execution and may not violate any U.S. copyright laws.
- Accepted media: paintings, drawings, collage, print, mixed media (use of more than two medias), computer-generated art, and photography.

For more details and application forms please visit <http://grijalva.house.gov/congressional-art-competition/>.

Students interested in submitting their artwork for this competition must do so by Wednesday, April 9th via e-mail in PDF format with a media description to AZ03TU.Intern01@mail.house.gov.

Congressman Raúl M. Grijalva will announce the winner at the winner's school at a mini pep assembly. Date of assembly will be arranged with school.

The winning art piece will be displayed in Cannon Tunnel for a year!

For information, contact: Consuelo Rios, Congressional Intern
AZ03TU.Intern01@mail.house.gov or 520.622.6788